Romans 12:3-8

What God has called you to do he has gifted you to do.

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man's gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully. Romans 12:3-8 (NIV)

Three questions to discover your ministry:

1. What are my gifts and abilities?

This tells me what God wants me to do.

2. What am I passionate about?

This tells me where God wants me to serve.

3. How is my personality wired?

This tells me how God wants me to serve.

I prefer to work with:

- people information things
- upfront behind the scenes
- alone in a group

How have I been shaped to serve?

READ IT FOR YOURSELF:

- 1 Corinthians 12:1-11 Luke 19:11-27 Psalm 139
- Ephesians 4:1-16 Romans 12:1-13
